

RESOLUTION No. 6
Law & Finance

WHEREAS, The principle of “one member, one vote” is fundamental to the democratic governance of organizations in which membership is voluntary, including labor unions; and,

WHEREAS, The current method of electing Officers does not adhere to the principle of “one vote, one member” due to even the smallest locals being able to vote as if they had one hundred members and the largest locals limited to voting as if they only had 5,000 members; therefore, be if
